

1 Pick a subject

Think about subjects you enjoy, what you're good at and your career aspirations.

3 Research costs

Look into scholarships, international student loans, sponsorship and part time work.

5 Consider your offers

Accept an offer from the university you most want to go to.

7 Find insurance

Sort out study abroad insurance, pack and get excited about your new adventure.

2 Choose which country to study in

Think about the language, culture, distance, weather and cost of living.

4 Apply

Complete forms, take tests, pay application fees and attend interviews.

6 Sort your visa and accommodation

Research visa requirements, apply if you need one and then arrange where to stay.
